Community Engagement: This award will honor a woman who is advancing the overall health of the communities where we live.

Community engagement recognizes the women who have gone above and beyond the call to serve others in a community health initiative. These women do so because they care about the well-being of their family, friends, neighbors and the community they live in.

Entries will be judged on responses to the following questions:

1. Describe the community health engagement activity/project.
2. What challenges did the nominee need to overcome to make this activity/project successful?
3. How does giving back to community impact her life?
4. What can others learn through this community health initiative?
5. There is increasing recognition of the importance of Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion in healthcare delivery and in advancing overall health and wellbeing. Please explain how this nominee is actively leading or supporting DEI efforts in the workplace and/or community.

JUDGING CRITERIA

- Entrants should address all questions posed within the category description.
 - Write a concise entry (no more than 1000 words for the total of your entry, excluding contact information). Prepare it carefully, as the judges will review it closely.
